LEVENSALE NOW ASSISTANT CLERK

Named to Succeed Maj. Leander P. Williams in District Supreme Court.

Alfred W. Levensaler, a member of the District bar, where he has been associated in the practice of law with Attorney Alexander H. Bell, has been named by John B. Young, clerk of the District Supreme Court, to succeed Maj. Leander P. Williams, assistant clerk, who yesterday tendered his resignation to Mr. Young to take effect March 27. Maj. Williams, with one exception the oldest clerk in point of service in the office of the clerk of the District Supreme Court, has been in bad health for several weeks, and because of his advanced age, eighty-one years, determined to surrender his duties as assistant clerk to Mr. Young.

Mr. Levensaler, whose appointment was confirmed by the court yesterday, is a native of Malco, a graduate of Bowdoin College. He came to this city in 1907, and was admitted to the bar the next year on certificate, being already a member of the Massachusetts bar. Mr. Levensaler is married and has a nine-year-old son, and Mr. Young will assign him to his duties to look after the records of condemnations and lunacy cases.

Maj. Williams' Record.

Maj. Williams, a native of Indiana, came to Washington at the close of the civil war, in 1865, and was appointed by the direction of President Johnson to a position in the Second Auditor's Office of the United States Treasury. He had occupied that office but four months when he was transferred to the position of chief deputy United States marshal in 1877, and held that office for six years. Upon retiring from the marshal's office he was made cashier of the National Savings Bank of Washington, which place he held until reappointed an assistant clerk of the court on September 1, 1884. Since that date under Mr. Meigs and John B. Young, the present clerk of the court, he has served continuously as an assistant until the present time.

CAPITAL W. C. T. U. TO FLAY CANTEN

Meeting Will Be Held to Attack Anti-suffragists in New York.

Sentiments expressed by Gen. Nelson A. Miles at a meeting of the New York W. C. T. U., which opposed the re-establishment of the army canton on the grounds that it would spell disaster for the army, are the subject of much commendation by women affiliated with the Washington branch of the organization. The New York meeting was arranged to counteract the alleged harm done by statements published by the anti-suffragists of that city, who declared themselves in favor of the canton, and it is probable that a similar meeting will be held in this city. Miss Louise Weightman, secretary of the local branch, will arrange such a meeting.

"The army canton," said Miss Weightman, "does more harm than good. We are not concerned as greatly in the soldier, who already is addicted to drink, as we are to the recruits, who join the army from obscure country towns, and who have never tasted liquor. The older soldier will get liquor when he wants it, but a young man would hesitate before he would go out and look for it."

"The proximity of a canton tempts the recruit, and he decides to try the liquor. Within a short time he becomes a habitual drinker. The attitude of the New York anti-suffragists surprises me. I don't see how intelligent women can sanction such an evil. I am sorry they have advocated the restoration of the canton."

Depth of "Juke" Oliver.

"Juke" Oliver, an honor man of the fire department, who had served twenty-two years, and was forced to resign a year ago because of ill health, died at his home, 2511 Dumbarton avenue, Monday night. Oliver was conspicuous as a fireman for his bravery. He served first with Engine No. 2, then with Truck No. 2. For the last sixteen years he had been connected with Engine No. 3. He is survived by his wife and one daughter.

Ask More Delegates.

Expressing dissatisfaction with the representation given them on the programme of the Christian Conservation Congress to be held in New York, the Evangelical Ministers' Alliance of Washington and vicinity held its monthly meeting in the Mount Moria Baptist Church.

The alliance requested that the names of Rev. J. Milton Waldron and C. S. Morris be added to the colored representatives to be present at the congress.

DOG FANCIERS TO MEET.

Plans Will Be Announced for Bench Show in April.

The Washington Kennel Club will hold a meeting in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce on to-morrow evening. The club is anxious that all Washington dog fanciers attend this meeting and learn in detail of the plans for the show, which will be held in the Arcade rink next month. An invitation will be extended to all to become members of the club and help make the show the most successful ever held in Washington.

The American Kennel Club has sanctioned the dates asked for by the local organization, which insures the presence of dogs from the foremost kennels in the country and the active support of the various clubs devoted to the interests of particular breeds. The Cocker Spaniel Club has already offered its special prizes, including one which has never before been offered except at the New York show.

Word has been received from Howe Totten that he will make a large entry of his famous Great Danes.

ANOTHER HERD CONDEMNED.

District Inspectors Find Thirty-one Tubercular Cattle in Maryland.

Thirty-one cattle out of a herd of fifty-six on a Maryland farm near the District line have been discovered to be tubercular by inspectors of the health department. Announcement to this effect was made late yesterday afternoon by officials of the office.

The name of the owner of the cattle and the exact location of the farm are being kept secret. A number of cattle in the herd were found to be tubercular some time ago. The test was not regarded as satisfactory, however, so a new examination was made by inspectors of the department, with the result that the additional tubercular cows were found.

Arrangements are now being made with officials of the Department of Agriculture for the killing of the tubercular cattle. Until the cattle have been killed and the farm has been disinfected the owner of the herd will not be permitted to ship milk into the city.

Business Law FOR THE Busy Man

There Is Exact Legal Information in This Book That Saves Law Suits, Money, Annoyance, and Trouble. See for Yourself. 1912 Edition Now Ready. EXAMINE IT FREE.

"In times of peace prepare for war" was never more applicable than to your business. The mere fact of being in business opens the way to difficulties that only an authoritative and exact knowledge of Business Law can obviate. Whether or not you have ever had trouble—it pays to prevent trouble. You owe it to yourself—your business—those dependent upon you to know how to protect yourself. You cannot and need not always have a high-priced lawyer at your elbow. Times may come when a telephone call or messenger can't bring him quickly enough; a quick decision may be vital, and whenever you want advice on business law without paying a big fee for it, you can get it from

Parsons' Laws of Business

It contains information that you need—that you would otherwise pay big money to get. It tells in plain, untechnical, understandable English about subjects that it is your duty to know. Look at the list of subjects. How much do you know about them? How much have you paid out to have some one else refer to a book like this and pass his information on to you—when you could have read it yourself in this great book?

Mail the Coupon and See for Yourself

We want you to inspect Parsons' Laws of Business—Free. We want you to see how thoroughly, yet how conveniently and simply, it handles the subjects so vitally important to you. Merely mail the coupon. And if you care to keep it, we'll send it to you—when you could have read it yourself in this great book?

ECZEMA

Also Called Tetter, Salt Rheum, Pruritus, Milk-cream, Weeping Skin, etc.

When I say eczema, I mean just what I say—eczema, and not nearly patched up for a while, to return some time later. Remember, I state this based statement after getting ten years of my time in this one disease and handling in the average a number of a million cases of this dreadful disease. Now, I do not care what all you have read, nor how many doctors have told you that you must be cured. I tell you to give me a chance to prove my claims. If, by writing me today you will make more real comfort than you have through this world with you, just try it and you will see I am telling you the truth.
